Paris – City of Light, City of Love, and City of Flowers.

From elegant floral boutiques to lively flower markets to expansive public gardens, flowers are an essential ingredient in the lush sensory bouquet that is Parisian life.

With exquisite photography and evocative text by Georgianna Lane, her new book Paris in Bloom transports the reader on a sumptuous floral tour of the city, pairing gorgeous floral images with iconic architecture and botanical motifs.

Included are the author's personal recommendations for the best flower markets and a detailed guide to the prettiest spring blooms in the city. Timeless in content, Paris in Bloom is a book for Paris lovers to savor again and again, one to keep on the nightstand to inspire dreams of your first, or next, visit to this glorious city.

Georgianna Lane is a widely published author and photographer with a passion for flowers, travel and the beautiful city of Paris, where she spends part of each year. Her romantic, light-filled images have appeared internationally in numerous books, magazines, calendars, greeting cards, home decor and other lifestyle products.
