GIBBS SMITH
TO ENRICH AND INSPIRE HUMANKINDIntroducing Vintage Roses

FINALIST – 2016 BOOK PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR, BRITISH GARDEN MEDIA GUILD

Created for everyone who is passionate about the classic beauty of romantic garden roses, Vintage Roses features over 60 specially selected Old and Modern roses in 240 pages of glorious photographs by Georgianna Lane. The lively and informative text by Jane Eastoe provides growing advice, fragrance notes and fascinating historical anecdotes.

Jane Eastoe (author) has written many books on the subject of the outdoors, from the National Trust Book of the Countryside to the bestselling Hen Keeping. In her garden in Kent, she has grown many varieties of old roses. Her practical experience of growing roses, combined with her love of historical research and fashion sensibility, makes her the ideal candidate to write this refreshingly up-to-date appreciation of vintage roses.

Georgianna Lane (photographer) is a widely published author and photographer with a passion for flowers, travel and the beautiful city of Paris, where she spends part of each year. Her romantic, light-filled images have appeared internationally in numerous books, magazines, calendars, greeting cards, home decor and other lifestyle products.
